5 Year Old Boy Dies In Barn Fire

Billy Ackerblade, 5 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ackerblade of Boskung, was burned to death at his uncle's farm near Minden on Wednesday afternoon.

The deceased was playing in the barn of his uncle, Wilfred Ackerblade, with his two cousins, Bobby 10 and Lloyd 8 when the fire broke out at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

The two older boys immediately ran out of the barn but apparently Billy ran the other way and was trapped in the blaze.

The fire took its toll in more ways than one. Also burned were 35 tons of hay, sheep and pigs.

The deceased is survived by four brothers, two sisters and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ackerblade.

Accidental Shooting At Harcourt

Frank Starr, 14 years old of 20 Fitzgibbon Ave., Scarborough, who has been holidaying at Harcourt Park, was accidentally shot on Sunday evening last and though at time of writing the young victim is recovering nicely, it is most fortunate that his injuries were not of a far more serious nature.

Frank was setting up a target in a sand bank when an accidental shot from a rifle in the hands of Paul Carey of 55 Kent Rd., Toronto, entered the victim in behind the right shoulder blade.

The bullet, a .22 calibre short rifle, traveled through the body and came to rest under the left breast. Dr. Harry E. Good of Haliburton removed the bullet which though traveling this distance through the body, didn't hit a vital organ.

O.P.P. constable Mountstevens investigated the accident.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

Minden, August 11 — Claire Forshey, 20, of Toronto, pleaded guilty of having so many passengers in her car that it interfered with her driving.

On August 1 Miss Forshey was driving on Highway 121 to Haliburton with four other girls in her Austin Sprite when, blinded by the lights of an oncoming car she lost control and rolled her car in the ditch. She was fined $5 plus $20 costs.

Ronald Mintz, 18, of Gooderham pleaded not guilty of obtaining liquor while a minor.

The accused was picked up on July 31 by O.P.P. officers Earl Bush and Jack Eastwood in the parking lot at the Gooderham dance hall. He smelled strongly of liquor when questioned by the officers. He was fined a total of $70 or 45 days in jail.

Anthony Sylvestrie, 22, of Welland, charged with careless driving, pleaded not guilty. On July 24 Mr. Sylvestrie was rushing an injured friend from Deer lodge to hospital in Haliburton when he crashed through the bridge south of town and plunged into the river. This was his first trip over this road and he was unaware he was approaching a bridge narrower than the highway and there were no warning signs. The charge was reduced to speeding and he was fined $15 plus $20 costs.

Local Business Man Injured

William (Bill) Emmerson of the Emmerson Lumber Co. at Haliburton met with an accident on Saturday afternoon last.

While in the warehouse to pick up a piece of lumber for a customer he tripped and fell on a sheet of plate glass.

He was rushed to the hospital at Haliburton where a bad cut in his left leg near the ankle required over 20 stitches.

He is at present operating his lumber business on crutches.

LEGION JACKPOT GOES

The Legion jackpot of $825 was won last night at the Legion hall. Mr. Jackson of Toronto and Mrs. Chabot of Gooderham split the jackpot each winning $412.50.

WHAT MINDEN COUNCIL DID

The regular meeting of the Anson, Hindon and Minden council was held in the council chambers on Wednesday, August 10.

Council accepted the proposal offered by the Brady's Lake Cottagers' Association to drill the bad rocks on the Walker's Pond section of the north road. The municipality is to do the blasting.

Monday, September 12 is to be declared a civic holiday.

The Dept. of Highways is to be requested to erect a sign at Twelve Mile Lake dam to read "Twelve Mile Lake West Shore Road."

The clerk was asked to write Phil Robinson asking him to remove all the wood from the right of way on the Bob Lake road as per his agreement with the township.

The road overseer was given authority to remove fences, signs, and other obstructions on the road allowances that interfere with road maintenance.

By-law No. 314 was amended adding, that "no sanitary privy, septic tank or tile bed be installed unless it is at least 50 feet from a lake or running stream." This amendment was recommended by the board of health.

A by-law was passed to provide for the erection of two "no U turn" signs. One to be placed at the Sunnybrook bridge and one at the Rockcliffe hotel corner.

Accounts amounting to $1,046.74 were paid.

The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, September 14 unless called sooner by reeve Fred Brooks.

WHAT DYSART COUNCIL DID

Dysart municipal council met on Monday morning last with all members present.

Having investigated the circumstances of John Maughan further re hospitalization, a resolution passed May 16 last was rescinded and the patient accepted as indigent for such an account.

David Kirkpatrick is to be accepted as an indigent resident of this municipality.

General accounts Nos. 625 to 722 inclusive amounting to $15,695.93 and direct relief accounts for July totaling $564.89 were passed and signed. This amount is down sharply for the corresponding period a year ago when relief costs amounted to $736.59.

It was moved that the Department of Public Works be informed that permission is hereby given to lower the drain from the post office on lot 1, block H from the street boundary to the storm sewer on Maple Ave. The work is to be undertaken and completed by the said department.

The petition and contract of Allan and Beulah Cowen for telephone extension and service from the Dysart Municipal Telephone System on lot 10, block Q in the town plot of Haliburton, being a transfer and continuance of petition and contract previously made by the said parties for telephone extension and service on lot 22, con. III Guilford was accepted and executed by the clerk.

The following conveyances were approved as required in by-law 59-8: part of lot 10 con. IV in the township of Dudley from Nilo Rautsalo and his wife to George N. and Stella E. Waspe. Part of lot 9 con. IV in the township of Dudley from Paul and Eva

First Carnival At Wilberforce

Proves Successful

This is the first time Wilberforce has had a summer carnival at the community centre. It was held last Friday evening and sponsored jointly by the Haliburton Legion branch and the Monmouth community centre board.

There was plenty of fun and games. The Haliburton Legion Band under the direction of Mr. George Wheeler was enjoyed by all. Many youngsters from a local talent show charmed the audience with their western songs.

It turned out to be a very successful and enjoyable evening for everyone.

Our hats are off to the Legion and to our own community centre board who made it so, and it is hoped the carnival will become an annual affair.

Dr. T. Anderson, who is staying at the Terrace Inn, Wilberforce, held the winning ticket for the $100 bond drawn at the carnival. Bonnie Johnston received $10 for selling the winning ticket.

Well Known Guests

Guests at Ogoopogo lodge for the past two weeks have been Fred Davis of TV and radio and his charming wife and two children.

It is a coincidence that he should have come to this lodge to stay as at one time he studied under Mr. Dave Edwards, owner of this resort and also that Mr. Davis had been recommended to this place by Claire Wallace, a well known voice for many years on radio.

Other guests are Mr. Walter Curtin, a very well known photographer, and Mr. Charles Stead, photographic editor of the Toronto Star.

Another person of so many talents is Mr. Pierre Berton who with his family are holidaying at Ogoopogo. He is to write a feature story on Scenic Highway 35 which will appear in the Star very soon.

Many times people of note come through our district but too often we are unaware that anyone special has been in our neighborhood. This time we know of their presence, so a very hearty welcome to you all.

san, which means the family will be leaving here. Mrs. Brookland has been a tireless worker in the interests of the auxiliary and her leaving is much regretted by the members of this organization.

Mr. Bruno Tiberi who used to operate a fruit market here has been renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Tiberi who now resides in Boston, has been away from Haliburton seven years and was quite impressed with the number of changes that have taken place since his departure.

The Haliburton ambulance made a rush call on Saturday to Camp Timberlane to pick up Linda Cherry, a councillor at the camp. She was rushed to Toronto's Mount Sinai hospital for an emergency operation. Firemen Wayne Woods and Alf Burke made the ambulance trip. On their return to Haliburton they had another call to Camp Gay Venture to pick up Jim Cox and rush him to the Haliburton Red Cross hospital.

We note W. A. Kaye Enterprises Ltd. have received the contract for the construction of a new staff house for the Haliburton County District High School. No doubt aided by excellent weather we are now having, they are making excellent progress on the building.

After a most uncertain start in the first two weeks of July the tourist business appears to have been greater in the past four weeks than ever before. The weather has been mostly fair, nice and pleasant in the daytime, but a little on the cool side at nights.

PROGRESS

Chapter 4

Before Haliburton County was born in 1874, 20 of its eventual 23 townships were attached to the County of Peterboro and three to the County of Victoria which was itself separated from Peterboro in 1863.

The first municipality in what now constitutes the Provisional County of Haliburton included the Townships of Galway, Snowdon, Minden, Anson and Lutterworth. In 1860 Charles S. Austin was elected its reeve with William Hartle serving as township clerk. The son of United Empire Loyalist parents from Pennsylvania, Charles S. Austin, who was the ancestor of most of the Austins now living in Haliburton, died on June 30, 1891 at the age of 74 and is buried in the Evergreen cemetery in Haliburton.

In 1864 the reeve of the municipality which then included the townships of Minden, Stanhope and Dysart was William Gainer with William McKelvey serving as clerk. The following year Charles Austin served his second term in office. He was replaced in 1866 by Captain John Lucas. That year saw Stanhope established as a separate municipality with James Melville elected to the post of reeve and George J. Rowe as township clerk.

By 1866 the population of Dysart township and the village of Haliburton had increased considerably. To have the local government of the area vested in Minden 20 miles away proved inconvenient so a petition signed by two thirds of the residents was sent to the County of Peterboro requesting separation from the Minden municipality.

On June 26, 1866 by by-law 272 of the County of Peterboro the townships of Dysart, Dudley, Guilford and Harburn were officially separated and established as a municipality whose first election was conducted by James R. Erskine, the busy blacksmith whose anvil made music through the village. His shop was built on the present site of Walter Kellett's barber shop and when Erskine retired it was later operated by Mr. E. Parish. As returning officer, Erskine held the election in the school house (probably the log building which was located on the hillside overlooking the village, near the present home of Mr. Clifford Whittaker.)

It resulted in the election by acclamation of Capt. John Lucas to the office of reeve. His council on January 1, 1867 were A. MacDonald, C. R. Stewart, Daniel McFarlane and William Smith. J. R. Erskine became the first clerk of the municipality of Dysart which is exactly six months older than the Dominion of Canada.

In 1868 the township of Harcourt was separated from the Municipality of Burleigh, Anstruther, Chandos, Cardiff, Monmouth, Harcourt and Bruton, and attached to the Municipality of Dysart. Bruton was added in 1869 and became the sixth township.

By-law 15 of the County of Haliburton passed December 9, 1874, annexed Sherbourne to Stanhope and the townships of Havelock, Eyre and Clyde were annexed to the Municipality of Dysart. Thus by January 1, 1875, the Municipality of Dysart et al which included nine townships and covers an area of 273,736.63 acres attained its present form.

Fence viewers and pound keepers play a leading roll in early municipal affairs. A by-law regarding these offices was one of the lengthiest ever passed by Dysart council. Copies were printed by the "Municipal World" and circulated among the ratepayers who even in 1867 had problems with pasky pets. To restrain them from running at large a municipal employee was paid $1 a day.

When the school sections were established, No. 1 Dysart included lots 1 to 10 in Dysart in all concessions from the Glamorgan boundary to the Peterson road plus lots 11 of concession 5. School sections 2 and 4 were established in 1871. No. 3 in the village had been set up before the municipality was separated from Minden.

The first school house in the village of Haliburton was built by the Canadian Land and Emigration Co. in 1864. Miss Giggins was its teacher. A second school south of the village was erected in Dysart in 1866 and was taught by her sister, Miss A. Giggins. This school was consequently taught by Miss Catherine Dover and Miss Janette Bain. First trustees to serve on the school board were Messrs. John Lucas Sr., J. R. Erskine and John Stothart.

The Kennaway school at Harcourt was organized in 1870 and the first schools in Harburn and at Eagle Lake in Guilford township in 1872.

There is a funny story connected with the erection of this first Eagle Lake school which was built on the old Burchill homestead. The logs had been skidded to the site and squared with a broad axe by the settlers. All was in readiness for the raising of the school but next morning when the workmen returned a number of their logs had mysteriously vanished. The only clue was fresh oxen tracks in the dust. In spite of logs which disappeared over night and other obstacles the school was completed and served the expanding community until 1892. Among its original teachers was a Mr. Perkins.

The second school on the hill overlooking Eagle Lake was built by Mr. Thomas Preston, who lived on the farm now owned by Mrs. Ed. Packard. The new school was built of logs covered with tongue and grooved cove siding and the first Christmas concert held within its walls was a milestone event long remembered.

On Arbour day, 1893, the older boys, under the direction of Mr. Perkins, invaded the neighboring wood lot and returned triumphant with a number of four foot high maple saplings which they planted around the school yard. Today these magnificent maples measure two feet or more across the butt.

This second school, though long abandoned by its pupils for a location below the hill, has one of the most breathtaking views in the whole county. The orchards which the early pioneer families such as the Duttons, the Overtons and Wards planted long ago in the 1870's not only grew and thrived but over the years seeded the hilltops for miles around. I can think of no lovelier sight than the heights above Eagle Lake in blossom time nor a more heavenly fragrance than their ripening fruit in the lazy Indian sunshine. What a shame that such beauty should be wasted.

Except for Glen Eagle lodge and several houses owned by summer residents the hills are empty for the farms which once dotted the landscape have long been forsaken. Travelers through Eagle Lake on Highway 519 cannot begin to imagine what loveliness is hidden from view by the enviroing hills.

In 1867 the fear engendered by the Fenian Raids and consequent American intervention in Canadian affairs penetrated even to the back townships. Peterboro had a well organized militia and that year a new drill hall was erected at Peterboro for the 57th Regiment. The first tax rolls for the municipality have a special section which lists every able bodied male for militia duty. Twenty-six rate as first class militia, 31 as second class and seven are listed in the reserves. The document is signed by J. R. Erskine.

Apparently militia duty was universal in early Canada. Mr. Sam McCulloch of Haliburton has in his possession a muzzle loading military musket with bayonet which was issued in 1824 and is stamped by the Lancashire and Welsh Fusiliers.

Ninety-five ratepayers are on the original tax rolls of the municipality with a total of 276 persons in residence. The bovine population numbered 122, the sheep 22, the hogs 58, the horses three, the dogs 28 and the bitches four. Even then there seems to have been an amazing discrepancy in the ratio of male dogs (now $2 per license) and female dogs (now $4 per license). With seven times as many males as there were females, one wonders how the canine population increased as it did until a pound keeper had to be employed. Incidentally the same conditions are indicated on the 1960 municipal dog ledger, either proving those original four females extremely prolific or the lack of change in human nature.

The tax rolls are very helpful in determining the occupations of the original residents. In addition to the many farmers, the rolls mention Henry L. Luff, storekeeper; John Dugan and Willett Austin, carpenters; William Ritchie, miller.

The 1869 roll lists 103 ratepayers, a total of 312 residents, with 505 acres cleared; 1869 adds William Woods, tinsmith and 1870 shows John Evneet, miller; William A. Hutt, school master and J. Williams, clerk. In 1873 a druggist enters the picture, M. S. De Renzie, also Thomas Kilpatrick, blacksmith and William Miller, carpenter.

The five acres on block six of the town plot of Haliburton surveyed by Hanning and Usher, P.L.S., which contains the municipal buildings and the present community arena were sold to the municipality by the Canadian Land and Emigration Co. by an agreement dated May 15, 1869 for the sum of $100 "for the purpose of a public square, fair ground, market ground and cricket ground." However, the actual deed signed by Charles Bloomfield and A. J. Cattanch on behalf of the emigration company and witnessed by Charles A. Wastell and J. F. Hellmuth was not transferred until 1880.

The reservations on this deed are common to most issued by the Canadian Land and Emigration Co. and are as follows:

"And also subject and reserving to the parties of the first part (the company) all mines, minerals or mineral oils whatsoever in, under or upon the said lands, and the parties of the first part covenant with the parties of the second part (the municipality) their successors and assigns that, upon request of the parties of the second part their successors and assigns, a working lease of all mine minerals and mineral oils whatsoever in, under or upon the said lands for the term of 999 years, the lessee yielding and paying to the parties of the first part a rent or royalty of one tenth of all mines, minerals and mineral oils whatsoever raised or gotten from said lands, and the parties of the first part further covenant with the parties of the second part, notwithstanding any act of the parties of the first part and that the parties of the second part shall have quiet possession of the said lands, free from, and the parties of the first part covenant with the parties of the second part to execute such further assurances of the said land as may be requisite.

"And the parties of the second part hereby covenant with the parties of the first part that they will hold the said property hereby conveyed to them for the purpose of a public square, fair ground and cricket ground and that they will not cut up or sell it for any other purpose."

Previous to 1867 a steamboat "fearfully and wonderfully made" plied the 16 miles of water from Austin's Narrows at the foot of Lake Kashagawigamog to Haliburton village. It replaced two flat bottomed boats and a skiff which ferried passengers and freight to Haliburton during the warm months when navigation was possible. Stephen Thompson was one of the partners who operated the steam driven boat but records do not reveal the name of the other partner who was also the builder.

The shanty boys, who were noted for their sharp wits and caustic humor called this Royal Mail steamship "The Bull of the Woods." It made so much noise that hunters declared that it had scared all the game clean out of the country.

The first bridge at the foot of Head Lake was built by the municipality in 1868 at a cost of $130 while the original bridge across Drag River was constructed by the Canadian Land and Emigration Co. In 1883 a bridge financed by the municipality was built at Stewart's Narrows by William Purst. His fee was $500.

William Prust must certainly have been an enterprising business man. Emigrating from Cheltenham, England in 1873 he settled on lot 3, concession 1 in Guilford township (somewhere on the old road to Eagle Lake which cuts off the Harburn road). In 1874 the assessment roll shows that there were four persons in his family and that he had three acres cleared. His occupation is given as carpenter. Later on he moved to Haliburton and built the fine brick edifice which is now occupied by H. J. Black's hardware store. Older residents affirm that he also made coffins. For 23 years Prust served the municipality as clerk, he was also for 20 years clerk of the division court. Moving to Toronto after the turn of the century, William Prust achieved success as a building contractor. Prust Ave. in Toronto was named in his honor.

Another main street store which dates back nearly half a century is the building which once contained the Bank of Montreal and is now occupied by Rae's Hardware.

This building and the dwelling house next door now owned by Dr. L. H. Carroll were constructed by Daniel Gorrie who was for many years a merchant in Haliburton before moving to southern Ontario.

An interesting postscript to the Gorrie family's history is the fact that Daniel Gorrie's son, Hugh, who was born in Haliburton, became the first manager of Eaton's store which opened at the Oshawa Shopping Centre. He is now manager of Eaton's in London, Ont., after being with the company for 30 years.

Shoemakers in Haliburton prior to the 1900's were the Pamplin brothers, one of whom was blind. They plied their trade in a little shop near the home of our member of parliament, Mr. Clayton Hodgson. A dressmaker's establishment was kept by the Gainforth sisters on the site of the Highland Food Lockers.

John Ferguson, who married Ellen Jane Lucas in 1896, kept a repair shop on the present location of Harold Fearrey's pool room. Mr. Ferguson, in addition to being a tinsmith, made watches and clocks, some of which are still running. It was said that he could mend anything from a ladies' wrist watch to the family deer rifle. Reading was his only vice; the book which most often claimed his attention, the Bible.

The Star Cafe building has housed many merchantile ventures. Dr. Giles had his office there prior to 1909, also a shoe store. When Dr. Giles left, his brother-in-law, Charles Douglas Kellett then purchased the store which he operated until the close of World War I. Although he died in 1926, Charles Kellett will long be remembered as the first man in Haliburton to own a motor car. What a sensation he and his Ford caused when they chugged up the main street on their trial run! Charles Kellett's sister, Mrs. Harry Austin, still lives with her son Glen in the village.

The oldest original house remaining in Haliburton is in the south west corner of the town plot and was owned by Mr. Ted Lane. It was built by Stephen Thompson, a brother of George S. Thompson who wrote "The Up To Date Life of a Lumberman" in 1895. Although his local color and description of life in logging camps is authentic, some of his adventures must be taken, as one lady whose father was a contemporary of Thompson's expresses it, "with a grain of salt—free running salt." Certainly Thompson's dates are anything but accurate. Thompson claims to have arrived in Haliburton during 1869 yet his name appears on the municipality's first tax rolls in 1867. Stephen Thompson joined the great exodus to the Canadian west which began around 1882 and continued until World War I. However, his son, Stephen Thompson Jr. of Beaver, Man., visited Haliburton in January of 1950 and was taken on a tour of the Thompson homestead which he claimed was as his father had described it to him. Just what year this house was erected is open to debate. The Highlands of Haliburton tourist folder quotes 1858 but an account given by Charles Bloomfield in 1867 published in "A Sketch of the Early Settlement of the Town of Peterboro and its Townships" describes a trip taken in September of 1863 with a surveyor to the town-

WEDDING

Benson - Mintz

Amidst a profusion of colorful gladioli and mums on Saturday, June 30 at 2.30 p.m., in the Pentecostal church at Gooderham a double ring ceremony united in marriage Joan May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mintz of Gooderham and Jerry Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson of Lindsay.

Rev. Welles, pastor of Orillia, assisted by the bride's father, Pastor E. Mintz, officiated.

Wedding music was supplied by Mr. Blair Hanthorn. The groom's assistant was Mr. Don Black of Bexley. Ushers were Messrs. Bert Benson and Grant Hunter.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Welles sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose a ballerina length gown of white silk appliqued net over taffeta. The bodice was charmingly lace with long lily point sleeves. Streamers adorned the back of the gown. A tiara held the veil in place. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses, white mums and ribbon streamers.

Miss Sharon Hunter, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a powder blue nylon taffeta and lace dress with matching head-dress and chose pink roses and yellow mums.

A reception was held at Mountain View Lodge where a buffet supper was served to about 60 guests.

The bride's mother received in a beige lace sheath dress with corsage of bronze mums and yellow roses with matching accessories. Mrs. Benson chose a mauve and white nylon gown with a corsage of pink roses and white mums and accessories to match.

For traveling the bride wore an aqua sheath costume with corsage of yellow roses and white mums. A brown feather hat with matching accessories was very becoming.

Those in attendance were from Toronto, Scarboro, Arnprior, Lindsay, Cobocok and surrounding district.

The youthful happy couple have the best wishes of the community.

After a short honeymoon up north they will reside in Lindsay.

BANK OF COMMERCE REPORT

Dynamic forces have been loosed in western Europe that are altering the whole structure of business there, says the current Commercial letter published by the Canadian Bank of Commerce. The area is becoming a high mass-consumption market in the wake of remarkable industrial expansion in the last 15 years, notably in West Germany, France and Italy. The fifties brought prosperity to the common man in western Europe: the future will bring prosperity to both common man and common market.

This rapid expansion has placed severe strains on the economies of a number of countries, the Letter says, and has resulted in restrictive measures in a good many of them. Existing industrial plants in western Europe cannot supply the consumer demand, which suggests that well designed and effectively presented goods from North America can be sold in Europe. The energy and imagination that Europeans have shown in tackling the North American market in somewhat similar conditions indicate what can be done.

Under the heading "The Boom in Europe" the Letter analyzes the interplay of many factors in both western Europe and North America and suggests that a period of lively trade between the two areas in view of the current plateau in business in Canada and the U.S. would provide a welcome stimulus, especially if the boom in western Europe can be prolonged and controlled.

The Haliburton Rotary club held their weekly luncheon in the basement of the United church on Thursday at noon, and from all reports it looked like a 100% meeting.

The speaker for the luncheon was Jack Burns who has a cottage on Drag Lake and who has been coming back here for years. He is well known to many of the Rotarians. He works as an engineer for the U.S. government in the Canal Zone, Panama.

Jack opened his remarks with a good boost for Haliburton when he said that whenever he and his wife had gone in business places they were always met in a friendly manner and that they had made many friends while in this area. He invited all the Rotarians that may pass through the Canal Zone to come in and he will show them around.

After his talk he showed films to the club that were thoroughly enjoyed.

Each chairman on the carnival committees gave his report and the carnival was definitely a financial success.

We were very pleased to have so many guests with us at this meeting.

ship of Dysart.

"There was at that time no access at all to the township from the Bobcaygeon road, except through the Township of Minden by a portage road, or rather track to the foot of Lake Kashagawigamog (now generally called Kushog by the settler) and thence by water.

"The inhabitants numbered about half a dozen settlers, two of whom were old trappers who had "squatted" there before the company was heard of. In the fall and spring, before the ice had thoroughly formed and before it broke up, these families were prisoners in the township depending for sustenance on the company's store—at the time by no means furnished with the luxuries and comforts of civilized life.

"It is due, however to the company to state that they assisted some of the early settlers who were unable to earn a livelihood in a most liberal manner and for a considerable time. The now rising village of Haliburton at the head of Lake Kushog, existed then only to the eye of faith and prophecy, there being but one small shanty, minus a roof, in which the gentlemen above mentioned bivouacked for a few days."

The more likely date for the Steve Thompson house is 1864 or 1865. The generosity of the company previously mentioned was certainly apparent at the opening of the Haliburton town hall which was planned in 1870 and completed by October 1, 1871. On the official opening day, December 6, 1871, the Canadian Land and Emigration Co. imported a band at a cost to the company of $40 to play for the celebration. The municipal building was christened the Lucas hall in honor of the first reeve, John Lucas. It served the community well until the summer of 1895 when it was destroyed by fire.

Fortunately for posterity, the municipal records were at the home of the clerk and escaped the flames. They now repose in the fireproof vaults which were installed in the municipal building when it was remodeled in 1957. It is the same structure which replaced, with a stone building contracted for at a price of $2,200, the burned Lucas hall.
